ABOUT US

Norwich Historic Churches Trust is a charity which looks after 18 medieval church buildings which have all been adapted for other uses. We believe that these buildings are an important part of Norwich's heritage and are proud that many of them are used for community and cultural activities.

We are based at the historic St Martin at Palace Church, open to visitors Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10am – 4pm. Here you can find information, displays, talks and events, as well as medieval architecture, stained glass and historic monuments.
