

Norwich Historic Churches Trust is recruiting a HEAD OF OPERATIONS, CONSERVATION AND HERITAGE

Norwich Historic Churches Trust is seeking a Head of Operations, Conservation and Heritage to lead its small team of staff. You will be responsible for day-to-day operational delivery of our charitable objectives to care for the Trust's estate of 18 Grade 1 listed, medieval churches.

You will have a strong background in heritage building management and conservation, and have knowledge of medieval church architecture, together with an understanding of how to manage the careful repurposing of historic buildings with sympathy for their fabric.

We expect you to be willing and able to share your expertise to develop and lead our small team and to advocate for the work of the Trust with stakeholders, including prospective funders.
